

1 Clearly, the theory that is being posited by
 2 the plaintiff is that the decedent suffered some mis-
 3 treatment by -- by her -- by [REDACTED]

4 [REDACTED]
 5 The Court also must determine whether or not 6 he has a -- that is, the plaintiff, has a settle under-7 lying legal right, and when we balance the hardships, 8 whether they favor the issuance of injunctive -- in-
 9 junctive relief.

10 Now, clearly, both sides in this -- in this 11 matter are seeking closure, and the -- and Court is 12 particularly moved by the -- by the answer filed by 13 [REDACTED] because it appears that she is the unin-
 14 tended victim, if you will, with respect to this 15 particular piece of litigation. She makes it clear, 16 and I'm quoting from her answer, that, "I did not have 17 the authority to make any decisions regarding my 18 mother, as stated in the will." And I -- and (I will 19 note that there was a will which was attached to the 20 pleadings) Continuing [REDACTED] quote, "I took 21 care of my mother to the best of my ability until she 22 passed away on October 29, '05. I deny any allegations
 23 that are accused of me. I have no knowledge of speci-
 24 men information, nor would I be able to make this deci-
 25 sion legally. I don't want to be a part of this. I
