

She stated that actually towards the end, he became an unbelievable man. This conversation was on speaker phone with Det. Noble and we did make that known to [REDACTED] due to the fact that Det. Noble also had spoken to her in the past regarding these complaints. This officer asked her if there was anything she could add in reference to her mother's passing and she stated no. We advised her if anything does come up in the future or if anything is concerning to her or causing her any problems with her mother's passing regarding the care that was provided to her mother, she could contact us at any time and she did have our phone numbers. For further information in reference to the conversation on the phone previous to this conversation, see Det. Noble's report.

Sgt. Jeffrey Sprague

12-27-05

203