

- Q. Do you know any of the hospice nurses names?
A. Augustina was her primary nurse.
- Q. Do you know another one?
A. I wanna say Marilyn, but it could be Maryanne. She only came on call.
- Q. Okay.
A. I only saw her one time. Augustina always came.
- Q. And the one that was on duty the night she passed, was her name Dawn?
A. Dawn.
- Q. Do you know her also?
A. Yes. I met her a few times.
- Q. Were they totally aware of your mother's illness?
A. Yes.
- Q. Okay. Now, prior to her passing away, were you told how much time she had?
A. Yes. The doctors, I went with her to the doctor and they said she was inoperable, it was already stage 4 way back in February.
- Q. February, right after, following January when you found out?
A. Yes.
- Q. And she had cancer in her, in her lungs also?
A. Her lungs, her gall bladder, her colon, her left hip, her left ribs, and the back of her neck.
- Q. Okay. And also in her back?
A. And then there, we didn't know that yet. There was two tumors on her spine.
- Q. Okay. And during this time, did you in fact leave your employment to tend to her?
A. Yes I did.
- Q. And also [REDACTED]?
A. Yes.
- Q. Okay. He left his employment?
A. He left his employment also.
- Q. Okay. During the evening that she passed, you were there?
A. Yes.
