

Q. [redacted] was there?
A. Yes.

Q. But the Sayreville Police also arrived with hospice?
A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And I had spoken to you in the past in reference to this also with [redacted] present, is that correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And I made you aware at that time of a phone call which was made by a brother named Bill Strauss from [redacted]
A. Yes.

Q. And that's one of the reasons I called you in because he was concerned with the care and the treatment she was receiving, is that correct?
A. Yes.

Q. Okay. And that I did in fact speak to [redacted] and then you came in one night that [redacted] was here, is that correct? [redacted] was here.
A. Yes.

Q. Okay.
A. I believe it was over medication. The issue.

Q. Right, that's right yes. Okay. Now, I spoke to you last week in reference to you coming in today, is that correct?
A. Yes.

Q. And I indicated to you that there was several letters or faxes that were sent to the Sayreville Police Department in reference to accusations made by a William Strauss, also your aunt, whose name is Caroline, and I'll get the last name so I don't put words in your mouth, A-u-s-t-e-y?
A. Yes.

Q. Ausley. And also a email from [redacted]?
A. Yes.

Q. Okay. Is [redacted] your stepsister also?
A. Stepsister.

Q. Okay. And Caroline is your aunt?
A. Yes.

Q. And Bill is your uncle?

214