

how's he paying the bills. And then I stopped taking phone calls. So they called a lot more than that, but I didn't talk to them.

- Q. Okay. And is it true that you changed your house phone number?
 A. I had to change mine.
- Q. And why is that?
 A. Because I feel like this is very cold towards my mother. Nobody really cared that my mom passed away. Everything's about money and who has what. It's just not right.
- Q. And that's William Strauss and Caroline Ausley?
 A. Yes.
- Q. Okay. Have you spoken to [REDACTED] in reference your mom's passing?
 A. I have spoken to [REDACTED].
- Q. Okay. To your knowledge, has there ever been any type of growing up, when you grew up, where did you live?
 A. I lived in [REDACTED] with my mother and my sister.
- Q. Okay. And then did you ever live at [REDACTED] or no?
 A. For six months, maybe.
- Q. But to your knowledge from the time you and your sister were younger, is [REDACTED] younger than you?
 A. Yes.
- Q. Okay. From her growing up, was there ever, ever, ever any physical or sexual abuse to yourself or your sister [REDACTED] or your mom?
 A. From?
- Q. From [REDACTED]?
 A. No. No.
- Q. Okay. Any accusations made towards him in reference to this?
 A. No.
- Q. Okay. Again, to your knowledge, is there anything that comes to mind, any concerns, anything that doesn't seem right to you, or anything to lead you to believe that [REDACTED] had anything or any part in your mother's passing?
 A. No. Cancer killed my mother.
- Q. Okay. And you were present for [REDACTED] taking care of your mom as well you were taking care of your mom?
